THE MACK SMITH PRESTIGE AWARD

for Outstanding Company or Individual

This award honors only the most outstanding businesses or employees who've perfected the YBA mission statement of promoting standards of ethics, education, and services to members and the community. Named after Mack Smith, a long-time member with a lengthy history of volunteerism, this award honors only the most virtuous.

To Nominate a company or individual: Please provide a description of the nominee in 900 words or less, highlighting their exceptional volunteerism, customer service, and other outstanding qualities. Be sure to reference the judging criteria to ensure your submission aligns with the key areas of evaluation. Additionally, please include at least one photo to support your nomination.
